HISTORY

Mount Union's Preparatory Division is a community music program begun in the Fall of 1987 by Mount Union music faculty members. The mission of the Preparatory Division is to serve as an outreach to Alliance and other area communities by providing exceptional music instruction while also enhancing the experiential pedagogical training available to Mount Union's music students. Currently, the Preparatory Division has nearly sixty students taught by Mount Union music faculty and undergraduate students in the music program.

We offer lessons in:

- Piano
- Voice
- Guitar
- Clarinet
- Percussion
- Violin
- Cello
- Flute
- Trumpet
- Saxophone
- ...and more!
