

New Raider News Email Series

We can't tell you enough how excited we are that you've decided Mount Union is the place you want to be. You'll find nonstop activity on campus, from national performers and campus-wide traditions to organized events and activities throughout the week. Cheer on the Purple Raiders at Mount Union Stadium or take part in a pick-up game of kickball. Explore our fun city or engage with faculty and staff who are ready to get to know you better. You will soon be defining your own Mount Union experience.

You @ Mount Union.edu

Now that you have decided to attend Mount Union, offices will be contacting you regularly using your Mount Union email address. Be sure to check your Mount Union email at least a few times a week; however, we recommend checking daily. In addition to your inbox, you should also check the messages in your "Clutter" folder to be sure important messages aren't in there instead of your "Inbox".
