MAY 2019

26, Sunday Departure

Check in at the Cleveland Hopkins International Airport for the overnight transatlantic flights. We're on our way!

27, Monday Glasgow

Good morning! We have just arrived in Glasgow. Following customs formalities, we'll meet our tour manager and transfer to the waiting motorcoach for the drive into Glasgow. Our sightseeing tour will include an opportunity to see the Cathedral Precinct and visit the cathedral as well as the St. Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art. St. Mungo's was the first museum in the world dedicated solely to the study of religion. Outstanding attractions include Salvador Dali's world-renowned painting, Christ of St. John of the Cross, and Britain's only authentic Japanese Zen Garden. Next, we'll check in at our hotel for dinner and the overnight accommodations. (D)

28, Tuesday Glen Coe, Caledonia Canal, Morag, Fort William

After breakfast, we'll depart Glasgow and travel to Glen Coe. The dramatic landscape was created by volcanic activity, which formed rocks that were later scoured and gouged by massive glaciers. Following time to enjoy the spectacular scenery here, we'll drive to Banavie. We've come here to see Neptune's Staircase, a flight of eight locks and a spectacular feat of engineering. Boats passing through the locks are raised or lowered 72 feet. This area also has one of the best viewpoints for the dark northwest side of Ben Nevis, and its 2000-foot cliffs are an enthralling attraction. Later, we'll drive to Morag to see Loch Morar, the deepest lake in Great Britain and home to the Loch Morar Monster. Our final destination of the day is Fort William. Upon arrival, we'll check in at our hotel for dinner and a two-night stay. Those that are interested will be able to attend a performance of the University of Mount Union choir this evening. (B, D)

29, Wednesday Isle of Skye, Fort William

This morning we'll drive to Mallaig to take the ferry to Armdale on the Isle of Skye. Our sightseeing takes us along the southern and eastern coast to Sligachan, located at the base of the Cuillin Mountains, for a photo stop. Next, we'll have lunch in the town of Portree, the capital of Skye, and then travel through the beautiful Trotter Nish Peninsula where we will see The Old Man of Storr, Kilt Rock and the Quairaing and Uig. Later, we'll return to Armdale to reboard the ferry for return to Mallaig and then continue via motorcoach back to Fort William. (B)

30, Thursday Fort William, Loch Ness, Inverness

Our day begins with some free time in Fort William, which lies in the shadow of Ben Nevis. There will be some time to look around, before continuing to Loch Ness, the largest body of water by volume in the United Kingdom. During our cruise on the loch we'll enjoy the beauty of the area and hear intriguing tales about the loch and its history. A stop will also be made at Urquhart Castle where we will learn about this Highland fortress. Our final destination of the day is Inverness. Upon arrival, we'll take a short panoramic city tour and then check in at our hotel for dinner and a two-night stay. (B, D)

31, Friday Culloden, Inverness

The morning will be free for independent exploration and shopping. In the afternoon, an excursion is planned to the battlefield of Culloden. It was here in 1746 that the Jacobite army under Bonnie Prince Charlie was defeated by government troops. Our next stop will be at one of the whisky distilleries in the area, where we will learn about the traditions of distilling and maturing Scotch whisky. These traditions have evolved through the centuries, using crafts passed from generation to generation in a continual process of refinement. Later, we'll return to Inverness where the remainder of the day will be at leisure. Those that are interested will be able to attend a performance of the University of Mount Union choir this evening. (B)

JUNE 2019

01, Saturday Perth, Edinburgh

Depart Inverness this morning and travel first to Perth, which has played a prominent role in Scottish history. We'll take a guided walking tour and enjoy some free time before making our way to Edinburgh, the beautiful capital of Scotland. Upon arrival, a panoramic city tour is planned before we check in at our hotel for the final three nights of the tour. (B)

02, Sunday St. Andrews, Edinburgh

An excursion is planned to St. Andrews today. This Fife-coast resort, with its cathedral, castle and long-established university, is also famous as the "home" of golf. Upon arrival, those that are interested will be able to attend a worship service featuring the University of Mt. Union Choir. Later, a familiarization tour will include a view of The Royal and Ancient Golf Club, the cathedral, and St. Andrews University. We'll stop to visit St. Andrew's Castle (begun in 1200), which now survives only as a shattered ruin on a rock beside the sea. Afterward, there will be free time for independent sightseeing and lunch before returning to Edinburgh for dinner at the hotel this evening. Those who are interested will be able to attend a performance of the University of Mount Union choir this evening. (B, D)

03, Monday Edinburgh

Today we'll explore Edinburgh beginning with a visit to Edinburgh Castle, where the history of Edinburgh is centered. We'll see St. Margaret's Chapel and the Crown Room. On the eastern side of the castle yard are the Royal Apartments, among them the tiny bedroom where Mary Queen of Scots gave birth to a son who became James VI of England and James I of England and Scotland. Next, we'll head to St. Giles' Cathedral, the present "High Kirk" of Edinburgh. While here we'll attend a performance of the University of Mount Union choir. Our final visit of the day is to the Palace of Holyroodhouse, the official residence of the Queen and her family when they are in Scotland. After the tour, the remainder of the day will be at leisure. (B)

04, Tuesday Return

After time for breakfast, we'll return to Glasgow International Airport for the return flights to the U.S. (B)

We'll also walk along the alleyways and tangled web of ancient streets including the famous Shambles. Later, we'll check in at our hotel for the overnight accommodations. The remainder of the day will be at leisure. (B)

General Data Protection Policy. We collect personal data, including, but not limited to legal name, gender, date of birth, passport information, dietary needs, and mobility concerns for the purpose of making travel arrangements on your behalf. We share this information with suppliers as it relates to the operation of your trip/tour. By signing the registration form/agreeing to the terms in TRIP, you agree to sharing your personal data for the purpose of making travel agreements on your behalf.

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation roundtrip from Cleveland to Glasgow on the tour and from Cleveland to Glasgow and London returning to Cleveland on the extension tour with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. TSA's privacy policy, as well as additional details, can be found at tsa.gov using the keywords Secure Flight. Witte takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit group airfare credits to 25% to 50% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many European cities, sightseeing is often done on foot or via public transportation.

Accommodations in moderate first-class to standard first-class hotels based on two people sharing a room with private facilities. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $540 on the tour and $275 on the extension. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily and dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Dinners do not include beverages.

Tour Personnel. A multi-lingual tour manager to accompany the group from arrival in Glasgow until departure from Glasgow on the tour, and from Glasgow to London on the extension. The tour manager may be assisted by local guides as needed.

Sightseeing and admission fees in accordance with the itinerary.

Tip and taxes are included for all services, including the tip for the tour manager and motorcoach driver.

The tour cost does not include passports, airline luggage fees if charged, portage of luggage, optional travel protection plan including luggage and trip cancellation coverage, optional excursions, independent meals, and any other items not mentioned as included.

Insecticide Disclosure. Some countries require that aircraft be treated with insecticides prior to flight or while occupied. For a list of the countries with insecticide requirements, go to <http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm>.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte offers a travel protection plan designed by Traveler Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. If plan is purchased within 15 days of initial trip deposit, pre-existing medical conditions are waived when full trip cost is insured and traveler is medically able to travel at the time of plan purchase. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to increase the trip cost insured on the travel protection plan if you purchase additional services and/or upgrade any arrangements. This could increase the plan cost of the travel protection plan. The plan cost for this travel protection plan is non-refundable after a 15-day review period.

Documentation: Passports, Visas, and Travel Consent for Minors. All U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport book to travel internationally. If you already have a passport book, check its expiration date now since the countries visited on this tour require passports to be valid beyond for at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport book or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

When travelling domestically or internationally, the U.S. Transportation Security Administration (TSA) and U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) advise that everyone carry at least two forms of acceptable identification in order to board a flight found <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/acceptable-ids>. Examples: DHS-designated enhanced driver's license, U.S. Passport, a foreign government passport. The name, date of birth and gender that appears on the identification card must exactly match the same data listed on airline ticket(s) and booking records

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are strongly encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. It has become increasingly necessary to possess such a note, and will save time if questions arise departing from the U.S. or to exit a foreign country. In order to download a sample minor consent form go to: <https://www.us-passport-service-guide.com/minor-travel-consent-form.html>The sample form is a guide only. Parents who share custody of their children should carry copies of the legal custody documents. Important note: Parents are responsible to contact the embassy of the country or countries the minor child will be visiting to confirm all travel entry and exit requirements, which may include obtaining additional notarized documentation.

HEALTH DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. You are responsible to make absolutely certain to have the proper immunizations and required documentation of such immunizations before travel. Witte shall not assume responsibility for the accuracy of health requirements or vaccination documentation prior to departure or upon landing at the final destination. See your health practitioner for advice. Prior to travel, required inoculations, if any, must be recorded by your health practitioner on a valid vaccination certificate, and you must carry for proof of inoculation where required. If you are concerned about taking any medications or receiving certain inoculations, and adequate timing of such inoculations relative to your travel booking, consult your health practitioner BEFORE booking. Check the U.S. State Department websites <http://travel.state.gov> for relevant information relating to travel to specific destinations, the USA Centers for Disease Control <http://wwwnc.cdc.gov/travel/destinations/list/> and the World Health Organization <http://www.who.int/en/> relating to health issues.

Luggage allowance. You may take one suitcase with a maximum size of 62 linear inches (height plus width plus depth) and weight of 50 lbs. You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 26 passengers, the extension on a group of 15, and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or changes in group size. Before passing on an increase, Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature below indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.

Reservations and payments. To make reservations on this tour, complete the Registration Form and return it as indicated. Reservations cannot be accepted over the telephone. Payments are due as follows:

Note that payments made by check are refunded by check to the person or organization that made the payments, and payments charged to a credit card are credited back to the same credit card.

Membership. Witte reserves the right to accept or reject any person as a member of the tour and to expel from the tour any participant whose conduct or condition is incompatible with the interest of the group.

Land-only participants. If you wish to make your own flight arrangements, contact Witte for the land-only cost at least 90 days prior to departure. Participants who make their own flight arrangements are strongly encouraged to coordinate their flight schedules with the group's flight schedule and to use the same airports. The group's airport transfers on the arrival and return days will be timed to the group's flight schedule. Land-only participants may need to arrange for their own airport transfers. Contact Witte for information and costs on options for private transfers. Witte cannot be responsible for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group's flight schedule. Participants who change their status to land-only less than 90 days prior to departure may be subject to penalties imposed by the airlines.

Domestic flight connections. Note on your registration form if you would like to fly to and from the international departure city. You will be contacted with schedule options and costs. Witte must receive requests for connecting flights at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special flight arrangements. Note on your registration form if you would like to extend your stay and/or depart from and/or return to another city. The number of passengers who can deviate from the group's flight schedule is restricted. You will be contacted to let you know if the arrangements you requested are possible and to advise you of schedule options and costs. Upon confirmation of your special arrangements, a nonrefundable service fee of $75 per person will be added to your account along with any additional air or land costs that may apply. In the event of cancellation, the service fee and any nonrefundable portion of special air or land arrangements made for you will be added to the penalties noted under "Cancellations and Refunds." Witte must receive requests for special flight arrangements at least 45 days prior to departure.

Special meal requests and food allergies. Note special meal requests and food allergies on your registration form. Witte cannot be responsible if special requests are not met but we will pass them on to the airlines, hotels and restaurants. If you have dietary restrictions or food allergies, be sure to carry your medications with you at all times. Also, discuss your special needs with your tour personnel and ask the wait staff about the foods you are served.

Mobility Concerns. Sightseeing on Witte tours almost always includes walking. Visits to historical places often mean climbing stairs and walking on uneven surfaces or cobblestones. The Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA") is only applicable within the U.S., and facilities for disabled individuals are limited outside its borders. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance. Motorized scooters and wheelchairs are unsuitable for many trips. Transportation services, including many tour motor coaches, are not equipped with wheelchair ramps. Handicap accessibility is not always available. Witte tour personnel are not able to provide attendant services.

Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

Final tour documents—including itinerary, hotel list, passenger list, flight schedules with departure instructions, and luggage tags—are sent about 10 days prior to departure. Flight tickets are usually made available at the airport at check-in.
