

Professor William Wyss

Department of Psychology, Neuroscience, and Human Development

About

Although born in Anchorage, Alaska, Professor Wyss is a Mount Union alum. He completed his graduate studies at Ohio University before working in museum education for the Smithsonian Institution. Next, he served as the curator of the William McKinley Presidential Library and Museum. He later returned to Mount Union to earn teaching credentials and served as the Chair of the Social Studies Department for Louisville City Schools. In 2015, he joined the Mount Union faculty.

Qualifications

B.A. University of Mount Union

M.A. Ohio University

Teaching Responsibilities

Introduction to the Psychological Sciences

Lifespan Development

Additional Information

Professor Wyss lives in Louisville with his wife, Dr. Lora Wyss (Malone University Professor of Nursing) and Macy, their Labrador Retriever. Their two daughters are recent law school graduates. Wyss was a longtime volunteer at WRMU and currently is an active volunteer at the Hartville Migrant Center.

Contact Information

Office: T&H 223

Email : wyswi@mountunion.edu

Telephone: 330-452-0766

Research Interests:

Health care psychology, the impact of culture upon thought, behavior, and health care outcomes.

