

Compliance, Training and Development Day - Friday, March 7, 2025

Time	Location	Session Title	Presenter(s)	Session Detail
9:00 a.m.	OAK 206	HR Essentials for all Supervisors	Office of Human Resources	New to supervising or just need a refresher? We will review all of the various stages of the employee life cycle and what supervisors need to know to ensure a successful onboarding of new staff, handling employee relations, and knowing what to do when a staff member departs for another opportunity.
9:00 a.m.	Teams*	Library System Update	Abby Noland	If you would like a sneak peek at how the Ex Libris System Works: basic searching, course reserves, etc. you are welcome to attend this short session.
9:00 a.m.	Teams*	Academic Integrity and AI	Dr. Stephen Craig, Director of Digital Learning & Design	In this session, we will explore the intersection of AI and academic integrity, focusing on policies, procedures, and best practices to maintain ethical standards in coursework and assessments.
10:00 a.m.	Teams*	D2L: Time Saving Tools, Open Questions and Updates	Dr. Stephen Craig, Director of Digital Learning & Design	This session will highlight D2L features that can help faculty streamline their workflow and enhance course management efficiency. Additionally, we will provide updates on new D2L features and enhancements. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask questions and discuss common challenges to get tailored solutions.
10:00 a.m.	Teams*	MS Teams Premium - By Invitation ONLY	Office of Information Technology	Learn more about using Teams Premium to make meetings more intelligent, personalized, and protected—whether it's one-on-one, large meetings, virtual appointments, or webinars.
10:00 a.m.	OAK 145	Huston-Brumbaugh Nature Center: Where People Learn From Nature	Dr. Jason A. Smith, Director of Huston-Brumbaugh Nature Center	This presentation on the University of Mount Union Huston-Brumbaugh Nature Center (HBNC) will summarize opportunities for faculty and staff training and development at the HBNC, including venue spaces and programs. Opportunities to engage in wellness and environmental learning experiences that enhance quality of work experience for faculty and staff will be presented. We will also provide an overview of our new strategic plan that is being developed to align with the University's goals and discuss plans for growth to support instruction, research and community outreach and enhance student engagement and recruitment.
11:00 a.m.	OAK 144	Armed Intruder: A Police Officer's Perspective	Kevin Brown, Alliance Police Department and Bill Ketjen, Director of Campus Safety & Security	A member of the Alliance Police Department and Campus Security will discuss what options are available when dealing with an armed intruder.
1:00 p.m.	OAK 203	Teaching Writing in the Age of AI: Continuing the Conversation	Dr. Nicole Johnson, Professor of Religious Studies; Director, Peacebuilding & Social Justice Program	As a follow-up to our January 9th conversation about WHY we teach writing in the age of Artificial Intelligence, IC Foundations instructors (as well as anyone else who teaches writing in the IC or in major courses) are invited to continue the conversation about HOW we might teach writing given the realities of AI. This workshop style session is intended to move us toward development of assignments and other course activities.
1:00 p.m.	OAK 206	Introduction to Data Analysis in R	Dr. Colin Campbell and David Gothard	This session will provide a hands-on introduction to statistics and data visualization in the programming language R. Emphasis will be placed on techniques and examples that can be readily integrated into a variety of classrooms. Advanced topics will also be discussed based on the classroom and/or scholarly interests of attendees. Participants should bring a laptop to the session.
1:00 p.m.	Teams*	Final Engagicon Info Session	Dr. Danielle Cordaro, Professor of English, Director of the Center for Faculty Development	Are you an educator at UMU interested in proposing a demonstration for the UMU Engagicon conference on May 12th? The conference highlights active engagement strategies in both online and in-person learning. These hands-on approaches help students learn by doing, boosting interest, deepening understanding, and increasing motivation. Come to the final info session about how to develop a proposal before they are due on March 17th, the Monday following spring break.
1:00 p.m.	OAK 144	Accessibility is more than accommodations: taking accessibility to the next level.	Jesse Cunion, Assistant Dean of Students; and Alexis Hedrick, Director of Student Accessibility Services	Certainly, providing the required accommodations for students with disabilities in our classrooms and programs is important. But, it's also not enough. Join us to explore ways we can create more accessible environments, built with intention to include and provide the best learning environment for all students.
1:00 - 4:00 p.m.	OAK 145	CPR Training	Lori Covington, 1 st Choice CPR	Attend this session to become certified to administer CPR. The University will cover the cost for the first 12 individuals that register. Additional attendees are welcome at $37 per person to be paid on the day of the training.

* You will receive the invite/link to the Teams meeting after registering